

PROGRAMME FOR 24hWorldWebinar PBM Marathon

Organising Society	NATA
Date session	Friday 21 April
Time Session (local)	18:00 EEST (Greece)
Language of session	English
Session title	Starting from the beginning : A history of PBM
	Introduction by Prof Jens Meier, Chair of NATA and Prof Sigismund Lasocki, Chair NATA Scientific Committee
	James P Isbister              Professor Isbister is an Adjunct Professor of Medicine at Sydney University and Emeritus Consultant Physician Royal North Shore Hospital, Sydney. He has had a broad range of clinical, research and teaching interests in haematology, transfusion medicine and patient blood management. He has served on National and International advisory committees, including chair of the advisory committee and board member of the Australian Red Cross Blood Service and Chair of the Australian National Blood Authority Patient Blood Management implementation committee. His contributions to haematology, transfusion medicine and patient blood management have been acknowledged with several National and International awards, including, the President’s award of the US Society for the Advancement of Blood Management (SABM), an Australian Red Cross Society distinguished service award and Membership of the Order of Australia.

24hWorldWebinar

PBM MARATHON naa

Friday 21 April, 18:00 to Saturday 22 April, 16:00